So. Bay Shifts Stand On C'house; Survey Asked

Development this week on locating the Glades sub-court-house included a reversal by the City of South Bay on its earlier action favoring Pahokee airport, a request from the City of Belle Glade for an impartial survey to determine a site most accessible to the greatest population, and appointment of County Commissioner Paul Rardin to head a committee to tour sites proposed by the various communities.

SOUTH BAY — Reversing its stand on the location of a sub-court-house, City Commission Tuesday night in regular session passed a resolution recommending that County Commissioner Paul Rardin to head a committee to tour sites proposed by the various communities.

Two weeks ago city commissioners agreed to a resolution recommending the county-owned Pahokee airport site for the sub-court-house. At that time Pahokee Mayor Lewis Friend and Councilmen F. S. Parrish and J. H. Wilkinson, Jr., attended the commission meeting to thank commissioners for a letter addressed the previous week to the County Commissioners favoring the airport location.

Tuesday night Commissioner F. W. Kelley, Jr., said that if action were to be taken in getting a court-house anywhere in the Glades it would have to be started by Glades people. He said that he favored a five-man committee as the solution to finding a site agreeable to all communities.

Ashley Attends
Mayor Walter Ashley of Belle Glade attended the meeting and was invited by Mayor S. J. Fisher to air his views on the court house location. Ashley reiterated his stand of recent weeks, stating that the court house should be located at a place close to the Glades population center and available to the majority. (Continued on Page 8)

FIRST TEST OF NEW ZONING FACING PAHOKEE COUNCIL

PAHOKEE — The first test of Pahokee's newly-revised zoning ordinance will be made within two weeks, and may prove whether City Council will stand behind the strengthened ordinance or fall into the "spot zoning" trap.

Orange State Oil Co. at Monday night's Council meeting asked approval to erect a bulk plant including two 24,000-gallon tanks on its property adjacent to the Prince Theatre.

The area concerned, along E. Main St., is classified Commercial 1, in the newly-adopted zoning schedule.

C-1 specifically prohibits "Bulk storage or sales of . . . fuels, gasoline, and the like" and "offensive to adjacent uses . . . structures . . . or hazardous because of exceptional danger of fire or explosion."

An Orange State representative presented plans to put the tanks to the rear toward the Prince Theatre and service station facing the street, replacing the present oil station. Some $60,000 is the estimated cost of the new construction, Council members were told.

Council put off decision until its next meeting, April 25. At the same meeting, Council President P. S. Parrish, and Members R. B. Simonson, James Harry Wilkinson, Jr., Loren Miller, and Fred Hickerson, met May 3 as the city election date, with candidate qualification and voter registration deadline April 22 at 5 p.m.

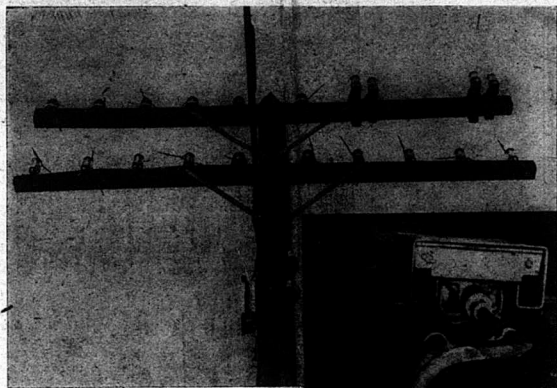

Election officials were named. Mrs. Edna Stevens, Mrs. Wilma Miller, Mrs. Mamie Mock, and Mrs. Helen Davis will be at the polls, with Mrs. Pauline Rice and Mrs. Rhoda Shive, alternates. B. Sponner was named deputy marshal.

PAHOKEE-CANAL POINT ARC DRIVE NEEDS $433
PAHOKEE — Just $433.05 more will finally put the Red Cross Drive to rest. Its goal of $1450 for Pahokee-Canal Point General Chairman C. A. Batchelor said yesterday.

Batchelor members who pledged to make their contribution to the Red Cross "by the 10th of 15" were asked by the solicitation committee to send in their checks. The drive will continue for a few more days in the final effort to attain the goal, Batchelor said.

The County Commission approved an agreement making federal funds available for construction. Application for the federal money was made some time ago but has been delayed until all angles of the joint financing were worked out.

CAMERA REPORT: Vandals; New Pump

GLADES TELEPHONE STRIKE had kept clear of violence, unlike phases of the strike against Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Co. in other parts of the South — until early Monday morning. Then unknown vandals cut the 20 open-wire telephone circuits on Pole 1433 between South Bay and Clewiston, knocking out the Glades communications to Ft. Myers including 50 long distance lines (above). To make sure of complete disruption, destructionists then slashed the cable entrance of the circuits (right). Also before 4:30 a. m. Monday, same or cooperating group forced water into the cable carrying some 40 long distance lines between Glades and West Palm Beach, silencing them temporarily.

CAMPOREE SET FOR TOMORROW

PAHOKEE — "See Your Boy Scout in Action," is the slogan for the Scout camporee to be held at Pahokee Elks grounds tomorrow, sponsored jointly by Pahokee Troop 28 of which Louis Mims is Scoutmaster and Canal Point Troop 24 with P. S. Slonaker the Scoutmaster.

This is the first of a series of camporees to be given by the Scouts. It will start at 12 noon, with the Pahokee Scouts pitching tents on one site of the grounds and the Canal Point Scouts on the other. Scouts will be ready for inspection by the public at 2:30 p.m.

A program of inter-troop contests and games will be held from 3 to 4 p.m. There will be no kiting contests, compass reading, water hauling, contest, tug-of-war, tent pitching contests, sack races, three-legged races, and various demonstrations of Scout skills. Glades District Committee Chairman George Kink will officiate at the contests.

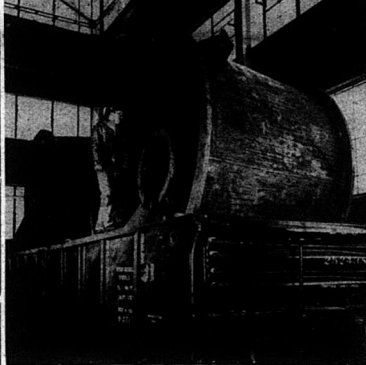

The barbecue supper will include ribs, corn on the cob, baked beans, cole slaw, coffee or cold drinks and will sell for $1 per plate. Robert Mcintosh, Scout advancement committee man will be in charge of general arrangements assisted by W. E. Johnson and Cecil Hall. Mrs. Bennie Sims will make the barbecue sauce, Mrs. R. T. Smith, Mrs. Henry Kautz, and Mrs. C. L. Stuart, the slaw; Mrs. M. I. Keen, baked beans; Jake Williams and Fred Hickerson will furnish the sweet corn; Paul Rardin, tickets; and Bobbie Frierson, piggy posters.

Salk Vaccinations Due In Glades Next Week

The world's newest medical miracle, the successful Salk immunization against poliomyelitis, will be administered to all Glades children of the first through fourth grades beginning Monday.

The new supply of the wonder vaccine is expected to arrive in time for the immunization series to begin throughout the area, according to Miss Banna Rodriguez, field supervisor for the nursing section of the County Health Department.

B.G. HEALTH FUNDS BANKED

BELLE GLADE — City Commissioners in regular session Wednesday authorized deposit of $11,525 to a capital construction account for the Belle Glade Health Center.

Deposit of funds was ordered after a letter was read from County Attorney Harry Johnson, on stating that property on which the center is to be located will revert to the city in event it is ever used for other than public purpose.

Of the amount deposited, $9,057 goes to construction costs and the balance represents the city's share of the purchase price of the site.

Street For South Bay

Mayor S. J. Fisher, South Bay, and Commissioner I. P. Roberts from the same city attended the meeting and outlined the need for paving 1300 feet of street in South Bay. Mayor Walter Ashley read the list of specifications required for the work and commission determined that Belle Glade paving equipment could be used at a nominal cost for the work.

A quotation of $350 to cover all costs was read and tentatively approved awaiting inspection of the work site by the city manager and the street superintendent.

Construction of an incinerator, possibly to include service to Pahokee and South Bay, was discussed with Mayor Fisher. Commissioners agreed to table action on the $65,000 project until the engineering firm of Russell and Axon have had opportunity to study the plans.

Bonard Pay Scale

Hilton Bonard, city commissioner, requested city council approval to approve a raise in his salary so that the Civil Service Board could take action in bringing his position in line with the other department heads. In the ensuing discussion Commissioner Close pointed out the need for evaluating the relative pay grades of department heads. City Manager C. E. Robinson was authorized to investigate the responsibilities incumbent on Bonard to determine a fair pay schedule. As a second part of the same action Commissioner Eugene Ellis moved that the sanitarian be paid $350 per month if it is found his duties are as a junior king and queen.

BIG POLITICS — Florida's Lou Wolfson is running for office. He was in Washington last week with his campaign—and it's in high gear. Political-wise Wolfson—who was one of President Warren's three big financial backers—isn't trying to win votes for public office. His bid is for "private office." He wants control of Montgomery Ward and is competing with Sewell L. Avery for the job of chairman of the board of the big mail order house. Wolfson's show here seemed to be a success—with hundreds of stockholders packing the hall to hear his ideas—and leaving after promising him their proxies in the big fight. Like a regular politician, he is being allowed the fun of making predictions. Our prediction on this race? Wolfson! Because, as he said the other day here, he has made up his mind to win control of Montgomery Ward if it takes him the rest of his life. Lou is 43—his opponent, Avery, is 81.

FROM STAMPS TO MONEY
Last year, Congressman Charles Bennett was instrumental in having the slogan "In God We Trust" added to some issues of United States Postage. He didn't receive official credit for it—but the change was made following his insistent urging. Now, he has suggested that the same phrase be printed on all of our paper money. He first introduced a bill to have it done, later was told that it could be handled by administrative action. He then went to the President with his idea and was informed last week that his plan was being considered—and may be used in a new issue of money which is now in the mill. These are not new projects for Bennett. For a long time he has preached the idea that our stamps and money which circulate widely throughout the world, should carry some message of the American ideology. Among his many ideas are more than a dozen stamp designs which he has submitted—with such quotations as Lincoln's "With malice toward none" and Jefferson's "Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

WASHINGTON—Secretary of Navy Charles S. Thomas joined with members of my staff and me the other day in a conference relating to naval operations in Florida. We found the Secretary not only friendly and cordial, but also most helpful. A Californian, he has a high respect for the state of Florida and its importance not only to the Navy but also to all the armed services.

PRAYER ROOM OPENED: The long sought Congressional prayer and meditation room, which was opened last time when the influence of Easter is felt throughout the world. This prayer room is non-sectarian, between Protestants, Catholics and Jews; symbolic of the existence of this nation "Under God," the single point which shows George Washington, our Father of Our Country, kneeling in prayer.

SCHOOL AID: Federal Office of Education has advised me of nearly a half-million in school aid funds to Florida's federally-affected counties. The allocations are to Bay County, $78,727; to Hillsborough County, $83,665; and Duval County, $268,264.

MOORE HAVEN LOCK TO CLOSE FOR 5 WKS.

Moore Haven Lock, located on the Okeechobee Waterway which crosses the state from Stuart to Fort Myers, will be closed to navigation for about five weeks beginning Monday morning, Apr. 25, according to the Corps of Engineers in Jacksonville. The lock is located on the west side of Lake Okeechobee in the Caloosahatchee Canal.

Colonel H. W. Schull, Jr., District Engineer, said the temporary closing of the lock is necessary so that repairs may be made to, underwater portions of the lock chamber. Schull urged navigation interests to take the lock closure into consideration in planning boat trips or barge operations. "Every effort will be made to reopen the lock navigation at the earliest possible date," he said.

APPENDICITIS
Too many people think there is no use consulting a doctor about a stomach ache. Your physician will tell you that any person who has been normally healthy and who suddenly develops a pain in the stomach has every reason to obtain medical attention because the pain is a sure sign that something is wrong. The possibility that the pain is caused by appendicitis can be ruled out only by a doctor.

If a youngster of school age complains of a pain in the stomach, it is especially important that medical attention be obtained immediately because appendicitis is a common cause of abdominal pain at that age group. The trouble-maker in appendicitis is short, narrow, dead-end tube called the appendix. Generally three or four inches long, the appendix branches off the large intestine approximately in the lower right side of the abdomen. Unlike other parts of the body, the appendix serves no useful function.

The appendix usually becomes inflamed and diseased when bacteria from the large intestine invade it and infect its gland-like lining. As in most other diseases, appendicitis is more likely to strike a person when his resistance is low than when it is in good condition. It has been observed that appendicitis is most likely to strike a native of highly civilized country located in the temperate zone.

The wise thing to remember is that a doctor should be summoned immediately when severe abdominal pains distress occur. Do not use any so-called pain killers until he arrives, for they may mask the pain and it is difficult to diagnose the trouble. A physician knows how to detect appendicitis by its peculiar pain symptoms, but if you have "decided" the pain with home remedies you may not only have obstructed the doctor's efforts, but you may have hastened a case of ruptured or acute appendicitis.

CANCER CRUSADE LAUNCHED

Dr. Paul Coughlin of Tallahassee, Vice President of the Florida Division, American Cancer Society, presents Governor Leroy Collins with the Seal of the Society's symbol, just after the Governor signed the Proclamation designating April as Cancer Control Month. The Governor is Honorary Chairman of the fund drive. He expressed the hope that educational efforts during the month might result in saving the lives of approximately 1,000 people in Florida who this year will die of cancer.

with unlicensed dealers." Mayo urged farmers to keep an accurate record of their sales. Such record, he said, should include date of transaction, name and address of the dealer, description of product by name, quantity or number of packages and price per unit agreed upon. When dealing directly with a trucker, record should be made of the truck tag number and date, and a description of the truck, that loads their produce. He also advised the farmers not to deliver their products without getting a receipt from the dealer.

MAYO CONTINUES FARM REMINDER

Carrying through on his theme of "Protection for the Florida Farmer," Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo distributed another reminder this week to the state's vegetable, poultry and livestock producers that the Florida Agricultural Bond and License Law is a safeguard against bad checks and non-payment for their products.

Emphasizing to the farmers that it is safer to deal with bonded and licensed dealers, Mayo issued a report stating that the Department of Agriculture has assisted 286 farmers during the past year in collecting more than $100,000 in claims under this law.

Under Florida statutes, all dealers in agricultural products must be bonded and licensed or they must furnish payment in U. S. currency at time of delivery of produce. During the past fiscal year about 1,400 licenses were issued by the department, supported by surety bonds amounting to over $5,000,000.

"More farmers are becoming aware of the security this law gives to them and they are selling their products only to such bonded and licensed dealers," said the Commissioner. "They realize that we can help them to get their money under this law. Not much assistance can be given to producers who deal with unlicensed dealers."

Mayo urged farmers to keep an accurate record of their sales. Such record, he said, should include date of transaction, name and address of the dealer, description of product by name, quantity or number of packages and price per unit agreed upon. When dealing directly with a trucker, record should be made of the truck tag number and date, and a description of the truck, that loads their produce. He also advised the farmers not to deliver their products without getting a receipt from the dealer.

GO LOOK IT UP

Scrabble players, cross word puzzle fans, word game enthusiasts and school students reach for the dictionary from long established habit. Checking the spelling or pronunciation or derivation of a word comes so naturally that few persons stop to think what life without a dictionary would be like.

As recently as 1755 there was no reliable source of grammatical information. In that year Dr. Samuel Johnson, 200 years ago today, finished nine years work on compiling an alphabetical list of English words with their proper spellings, definitions and usages. Until his dictionary was on the market there had been no readily available complete reference work for the readers of England.

One compilation of words that had limited circulation and limitations in usefulness was published in 1744 by William Pardon, Gent. His was the fourth edition of "A New General English Dictionary," peculiarly calculated for the use and improvement of such as are acquainted with the learned languages. This work was begun by Mr. Thomas Dyer in its first three editions and Pardon brought the earlier works up to date by including "words and terms made up of in various fields of learning which are fully explained and accented on their proper syllables to prevent a vicious pronunciation." Pardon looked down his nose at his public by implying, in his introduction, that anyone who knew English knew all the words and their meanings and those who didn't probably didn't need a dictionary anyway. Nonetheless, he patronized his public to the extent that the outline rules of grammar—probably for those who once knew the rules but had momentarily over-looked them!

Usage of the day is illustrated in a typical conjunction of "have as," "I have, Thou hast." "Public is typical of his definitions, it meant "free for everybody's use." Demo-

Learn How to Pull Together

Saw a kid go by the Clarion office on a brand-new coaster wagon yesterday—and it reminded me of when my brother and I were about forty years younger.

Our folks weren't poor, but there wasn't enough to buy two wagons for Christmas. We got one between us. Dad made a rule that we each could have it for a week—but the boy with the wagon was responsible for keeping the kitchen wheel-bow filled. We met at first. But soon we discovered it was no more fun playing alone than working alone. It wasn't long before we were sharing the wagon in return for sharing the chores.

From where I sit, you can't enjoy a privilege yourself if you're going to deny it to others. There are some folks who want the right to enjoy their favorite beverage—but would deny me my right to an occasional glass of beer. I doubt if such people get the full "share" of happiness, though.

LOOKING INTO THE FACTS...

No Protein—No Production
"There is no way of short-changing a cow on protein and still have a cow that will produce a calf every year. A cow short of protein will tend to have a calf one year and skip the next. She has to do this because she needs to recuperate and build body stores in order to conceive and give birth to another calf. This is nature's way of protecting her against the lack of protein."

"Quoted from article by T. J. Cunha, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station."

Want to feel like a pilot feels?

Today's the day to "Join The Test Pilot Club" and see what a thrill you get when you try Variable Pitch Dynaflow™

We're not kidding. When you try a '55 Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow, you'll feel like a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway for take-off.

For you, in the driver's seat, are doing what that pilot does—you're changing the pitch of your propellers—one way for instant response or getaway—another way for better gas mileage in cruising. Your propellers are whirling in oil, deep inside the Dynaflow. When you press the pedal in the normal way, you hold those propellers in their economy angle—and you enjoy plenty more miles from your gasoline. But when you want instant acceleration—for quick getaways, or for a sudden safety-surge of emergency power—you just press the pedal way down, and—with absolute smoothness—you get the action you want, and split-second quick. It's the thrill that's the talk of the industry—performance unlike anything you have ever known before on the ground.

And so many folks have been asking to try it that we Buick dealers across America have set up April as "Test Pilot Club" Month. All it takes to join the "Club" is a test drive at the wheel of a new Buick. That's all. So we cordially invite you to win your "wings"—to try the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflow—and to feel the mighty V8 power that puts the whip to these gorgeous new Buick beauties. Drop in this week.

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional on extra cost on other Series.

Local delivered price

2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan, Model 46 (illustrated) is Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the most experienced driver may want extra help. Buick one of the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

Said a sleuth: Ah! The mystery's unraveled—
About cars that "take off like a jet."
But with Dynaflow's switch
On the Variable Pitch—
You were here. Now you're there.
Boy, that's travel!

VETERANS' NEWS

Glades Veterans Service Committee

By HERBERT E. PRIEST, Director

Report of the four Palm Beach County Service Officers for the month of March, 1955. Total Claims Filed 187, Telephone Interviews 685, Personal Interviews 700, Letters Written 492, Verified Monetary Recoveries $4,584.05.

The annual quarterly meeting of the four Veterans Service Committees was held Thursday evening, April 7, in the Circuit Court room at the County Court House in West Palm Beach.

Marshall Simmons, assistant State Service Officer from Pratt General Hospital in Coral Gables, was the principal speaker, with chairman of the committee Alfred R. Suhr presiding.

Simmons spoke on hospitalization benefits for veterans and also supervision of the Veterans Hospital in Coral Gables. In addition to hospital benefits, Simmons spoke of the "Economy Act" under way for veterans and of several organizations that have the Veterans Administration under fire. While some of these organizations are attacking the Veterans Administration, they are at the same time undermining themselves.

According to a late bulletin from State Service Officers, Melvin T. Dixon in St. Petersburg, Florida, the United States has in the past 15 years spent for foreign aid a sum more than 2 1/2 times the amount expended on veterans programs since 1788. A person can afford to be critical of his government at times, especially after reading Congressman Paul Rogers' statement in the newspaper stating that when he went to Washington his "eyes were opened".

All veterans should support their various veterans organizations and express their opinion concerning this "Economy Act" if the veterans sit back and let this "Economy Act" be executed, it will be too late to gripe about being deprived of veterans benefits.

How the law of divine Love revealed by Christ Jesus offers mankind redemption from sin and limitation will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (19:0): "Jesus aided in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings, and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit, — the law of divine Love."

The Golden Text is from Mark (10:45): "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many."

LIFE OF WESLEY FILM SUNDAY P. M.

The new motion picture, "John Wesley," a color production of the life and work of the founder of Methodism, will be shown to the public Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Belle Glade Community Methodist Church.

The feature-length film is in the new Eastman color and was produced by the radio and film commission of the Methodist Church in cooperation with J. Arthur Rank.

"Wesley's" miraculous rescue from a burning house at the age of five, at the beginning of the film, forecasts the eventual life which unfolds in this story of a man of slight stature but of impelling influence upon his contemporaries and upon history.

The English clergyman thought his venture in America as a missionary to the Indians in the Georgia colony was a failure, but it was the kind of failure which opened the door to the discovery of a religious certainty he had been seeking. Furthermore, this discovery, in which John Wesley felt his heart strangely warmed, led him to face mobs unafraid, and to ride 250,000 miles on horseback, changing the masses of English people from a low state of moral degradation to sturdy and happy uprightness.

Rev. H. E. Garrett, pastor, explained that while the film is being released only to Methodist Churches during the initial period, the public is invited to see the picture Sunday night.

SO. BAY — The majority of people. Commissioner J. P. Roberts pointed out the advantages to be found at Pahokee airport, stressing the development that might come there for the good of the Glades in general. He remarked on possibility of air mail service and even air line service if the area is developed.

After further discussion, in which Commissioners W. C. Allen and W. M. Jeffries participated, the mayor asked City Attorney Claude Jones to read the resolution rescinding the two week old stand and suggesting an impartial investigation to be made by five disinterested residents from the coast area. Commissioner Roberts voted against the resolution, stating that he

WATER USERS ASKED TO PUT UP 'NETS'

PAHOKEE — The conscientious citizens who pay their water bills before the 10th of the month, thus earning a 10% discount have been asked by the City Clerk's office to count their pennies closer.

Only the sum under "net" is subject to the 10% discount, says City Clerk Dorothy Graham. The on-time water bill payer may deduct 10% from that figure — provided he also plans to mail his check or pay his bill before midnight the 10th of the month. The "net" figure represents money owed for the current month, and is the only one eligible for the discount.

Milton Rader was denied his request for city to replace sidewalk in front of his 5th St. property. Russell and Annie Lou Brown were given permission to start demolition and reconstruction from the rear of their condemned house. Inasmuch as they have to live in the front part while the rear portion is razed and rebuilt, this unusual procedure was authorized.
